

career opportunity in Forensic Psychology

now hiring Psychologists

for newly-created positions with expanding & cutting-edge forensic behavioral health program in California

Liberty Healthcare's "Restoration of Competency" program is based within the West Valley Detention Center and delivers timely and high-quality court-ordered forensic assessments, psychiatric stabilization, and restoration of competency services to adults within a jail setting.

West Valley Detention Center - San Bernardino County, CA

As a Psychologist with Liberty — your role would involve:

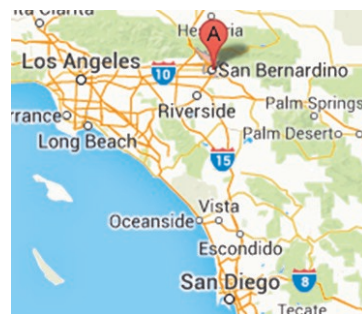

- * Conducting mental status examinations & administering psychological tests
- * Formulating diagnosis and developing individualized treatment plans
- * Providing individual treatment to assigned patients
- * Collaborating with Psychiatrists, Therapists, Nurses and ancillary clinicians
- * Evaluating patients for competency to stand trial
- * Writing reports & providing testimony for legal proceedings occasionally

www.libertyhealthcare.com

Liberty Healthcare offers:

- Competitive salary
- Well-rounded benefits package
- Collegial multi-disciplinary setting
- Affiliation with a nationally-recognized leader in the forensic behavioral health field

The West Valley Detention Center is located in Rancho Cucamonga, CA in San Bernardino County and the Inland Empire region of California
Los Angeles — 1 hour west
San Diego — 2 hours south

For more info or to apply contact Carol Wertley

carolw@libertyhealth.com mobile (610) 389-7437

Forensic Psychologist positions will also soon be available with Liberty Healthcare's new forensic program in Dallas, TX